

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child works independently

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness
- Self-confidence
- Self-help
- Thinking, reasoning & problem-solving

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child adjusts to transitions and new experiences

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness; identity
- Problem-solving
- Self-help
- Self-confidence
- Appropriate risk-taking
- Copes well with new experiences

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child completes a task in a timely manner

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness; identity
- Ability to focus on task; concentration
- Completes a task
- Follows directions

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child is responsible for own belongings

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness; intrapersonal knowledge
- Self-help
- Care of personal items (school bag, coat, show & tell, etc.)
- Self-confidence
- Problem-solving
- Language & communication

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child respects classroom materials

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Appreciation; gratitude for materials
- Respect for the property of others
- Care of school equipment & materials
- Caring language & communication

Developmental Milestones: Emotional

Child articulates feelings appropriately

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness; intrapersonal knowledge
- Emotional vocabulary
- Interpersonal communication
- Self-confidence
- Thinking, reasoning & problem-solving