

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Language & Communication

Child participates in group discussions

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Self-awareness
- Collaborative interaction
- Cooperation
- Asks & answers relevant questions
- Takes turns with others by speaking one at a time
- Creativity & imagination
- Community building
- Self-confidence
- Thinking, reasoning & problem-solving

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Language & Communication

Child communicates clearly and to the point

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Knowledge of verbal & non-verbal conversational rules
- Processing information to organize thoughts
- Uses words to express ideas
- Clearly communicates intended meaning
- Uses appropriate tone
- Collaborative expression and cooperation
- Receptive and expressive language
- Self-awareness
- Self-confidence

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Language & Communication

Child listens attentively

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Knowledge of verbal & non-verbal conversational rules
- Thinking, reasoning & problem-solving
- Cooperation
- Patience
- Self-awareness
- Self-confidence