

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child understands geography in our community and beyond

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Language & communication
- Vocabulary
- Geographical terminology and awareness
- Familiarity
- Memorization
- Self-confidence

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child understands basic human needs

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Language & communication
- Vocabulary
- Self-confidence
- Interpersonal awareness
- Classification

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child identifies purpose of having rules

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Language & communication
- Vocabulary
- Memorization
- Self-confidence
- Interpersonal awareness
- Classification
- Respect for property and each other

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child understands important symbols, customs, and responsibilities

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Vocabulary
- Memorization
- Self-confidence
- Familiarity
- Receptive language
- Visual discrimination
- Concentration; focus
- Community building

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child understands and respects the similarities and differences in people, customs, and traditions

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Memorization
- Self-confidence
- Familiarity
- Self-awareness
- Respect for others
- Understands same and different
- Visual discrimination
- Collaborative interaction
- Community building

Developmental Milestones: Cognitive/Social Studies

Child is familiar with American holidays and traditions

These observations involve the following developmental skills:

- Language & communication
- Vocabulary
- Memorization
- Self-confidence